

Federal Rights of Disabled Persons Accompanied by Service Animals

The federal civil rights law, the American's with Disabilities Act (ADA), Title III, 28 CFR Sec 36.104, defines a service animal as any animal that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for a person with a disability (the disability might not be visible). The ADA does not require proof or certification of the animal's training.

SEE REVERSE